

Woodwind Day 2009

For
Students in grades 10-12
preparing for Mid-State Auditions

Saturday, November 21
9 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Students in high school grades 10-12 who play saxophone, clarinet, bass clarinet, flute, oboe and bassoon are invited to participate in Woodwind Day on Saturday, Nov. 21 at APSU. The day's events, held in the Music/Mass Communication Building on the APSU main campus, will include workshops on scales, sight-reading and audition techniques, as well as group sessions with APSU music faculty. Students will also participate in like-instrument chamber ensembles, focusing on ensemble playing and rehearsal techniques and culminating in an open performance in the Concert Hall.

There is a $10 charge for this event, which includes registration and lunch.
